ELECTRONIC RECORD & SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, PT VISI INDONESIA PANCACITA a.k.a. Vaxcorp Indonesia (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the SignRequest system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure (ERSD), please confirm your agreement by selecting the check-box next to 'I agree to use electronic records and signatures' before clicking 'CONTINUE' within the SignRequest system.

Getting paper copies
At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the SignRequest system during and immediately after the signing session and, if you elect to create a SignRequest account, you may access the documents for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a Rp. 50.000,00 (Fifty Thousand Rupiah) per-document fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent
If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind
If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. Further, you will no longer be able to use the SignRequest system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically
Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the SignRequest system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

E-Signature Legality Summary
Three primary laws regulate the use of electronic signatures:

1. Law No. 11, which recognizes electronic signatures;
2. Government Regulation of the Republic of Indonesia No. 71 of 2019 on the Operation of Electronic Systems and Transactions, which implements Law No. 11; and
3. Government Regulation of the Republic of Indonesia No. 80 of 2019 on Trade Through Electronic Systems, which implements Law No. 11.

Types of Electronic Signature
Indonesia defines two types of electronic signatures, an electronic signature and a "certified" electronic signature (often referred to in other regions of the world as a "digital signature").

Electronic signatures are not "certified" electronic signatures if they are made without using the service of a registered Indonesian electronic certification service operator as described below.

"Certified" electronic (digital) signatures shall meet the following heightened requirements:

- Fulfills the requirements for enforceability of electronic signatures (as stated below);
- Uses an electronic (digital) certificate created by a registered Indonesian electronic certification operator, which is a legal entity that can audit electronic certificates; and
- Made by using a certified electronic signature generation device, which is software or hardware that is configured and used to create a certified electronic (digital) signature.

The main difference between an electronic signature and a certified electronic (digital) signature is not the enforceability of the electronic signature, but rather that the certified electronic (digital) signature has stronger inferred evidentiary value (e.g., during a court proceeding where the parties need to prove that the electronic signature is authentic).

Documents That May be Signed Electronically
Indonesia does not impose any specific restrictions on most types of documents that can be signed using an electronic signature. Further, Indonesian law does not require that any specific documents or transactions use a "certified electronic (digital) signature." However, ongoing efforts continue in furthering the consistent understanding, adoption and recognition of electronic signatures in Indonesia by government entities and the Indonesian courts.

Further Guidance
An electronic signature will have legal force and effect if the following requirements are met:

- The electronic signature data creation is only associated with the signer;
- The electronic signature data creation shall be in the control of the signing party only at the time of signing;
- Any alteration to electronic signatures that occurs after the time of the signing is tamper-evident;
- Any alteration to electronic information associated with the electronic signature after the time of the signing is tamper-evident;
- Certain methods are used to identify the signer; and
- Certain methods are used to demonstrate that the signer has given consent to the associated electronic information through affirmative actions and an explicit action.

By selecting the check-box next to 'I agree to use electronic records and signatures', you confirm that:

1. You can access and read this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure; and
